Dear Families

The Young Professionals are thrilled to announce a new and unique opportunity for our student network in collaboration with the Health Sciences University!

On Tuesday, 15th October, from 5:00 PM to 6:00 PM, they will be hosting a virtual webinar that will showcase a range of rewarding careers in the healthcare sector.

About Health Sciences University (HSU):

Join them for this enlightening session hosted by Health Sciences University, a specialist institution with campuses in London and Bournemouth. HSU is renowned for delivering high-quality education, research, clinical practice, and consultancy services across various fields, including chiropractic, physiotherapy, psychology, sports science, radiology, and imaging sciences.

Webinar Details:

Title: An Introduction to Careers in Healthcare: Diagnosing a Footballer's Low Back Pain

Date: Tuesday, 15th October, Time: 5.00 PM – 6.00 PM, Location: Online (Link will be provided upon registration)

What to Expect:

In this interactive webinar, we will follow the case of a footballer who experiences back pain after a fall during a match. You'll learn how to triage a low back pain patient, exploring the diagnostic process that includes medical imaging and treatment options from various healthcare disciplines such as chiropractic, osteopathy, psychology, and rehabilitation.

Key Takeaways:

- Insights into the diagnostic process and treatment options for bodily pains
- An understanding of various healthcare professions and their respective roles
- A chance to ask questions and engage with medical experts

This is an excellent opportunity for anyone interested in pursuing a career in healthcare. Don't miss out on the chance to learn from professionals and explore how you can contribute to this rewarding field!
